THE M'DONALD WILL CASE

Comes Up in the Supreme Court of Indiana on Appeal—Thirteen Errors Cited in the Brief,

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 18.-The celebrated effort to break the will of the late Senator Joseph E. McDonald, came to the supreme court yesterday on appeal from the Hamilton circuit court, where it was decided against Mrs. McDonald, the senator's second wife, in favor of the children by his first wife. About $100,000 worth of property is involved. The appeal cites thirteen errors, averring that the lower court erred in refusing to vacate the order made on motion of appellees, requiring Mrs. McDonald to submit to statutory examination under oath before trial; in requiring Mrs. McDonald to produce a duplicate copy of the will; in requiring Mrs. McDonald to produce for expert examination this duplicate copy of the will; in overruling the motion made by Mrs. Mc-Donald to require appellees to elect upon what theory they would prose that man. The G. A. R. is just as cute; in overruling the motion made by Mrs. McDonald to require appellees to make their complaint more specific; in overruling the separate demurrer of Mrs. McDonald to the amended complaint, and in various minor rulings.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 19.-Yesterday shortly after 2 o'clock Charles Watson, the negro who cut the throat of little Sam Keith, a 10-year-old boy, was lynched by a mob of about 1,500 citizens of Morganfield and Uniontown, Ky. The hanging occurred in Taylor's woods about a mile from Morganfield. Young Keith was at the Uniontown fair Thursday selling watermelons. Towards evening Walton succeeded in coaxing Keith into a field near the fair grounds. When out of sight of the people Walton cut the boy's throat in a fearful manner and then robbed him of four dollars. The negro fled and the boy crawling to the fence managed to attract the attention done for the sufferer, but there is small hope of his recovery. Walton was captured shortly after the cutting and was taken to Morganarmy corps, brigade and regimental or- field, to which place Keith was also ganizations; six great camp fires of veterans; receptions at private houses. was identified by the boy about 11 o'clock Thursday night.

News of the identification spread quickly. The mob formed quietly, and learning that their prisoner was on the way to the Henderson jail, twenty miles distant, they set out to follow. They came up with the officers and prisoner about a mile from Morganfield, and taking Walton from the surrey, placed a rope around his neck and swung him to a limb.

The negro begged piteously for his life, but did not deny his crime. The rope was tied about the tree and the body left hanging until 8 a. m., when it was cut down and hauled to Morganfield. It was then buried in a hole in the ground in pottersfield without a boy.

Sheriff Blue, who was at the Morganfield jail when the mob came up, had the Delaney-Holt murderers taken to his private residence, fearing the mob would lynch them also. There are seven in this crowd awaiting trial

Commander-in-Chief Weissert on the Pension Questio CANTON, O., Aug. 19.-At the grand camp fire given by the local G. A. R. at the tabernacle Thursday night Commander-in-Chief A. G. Weissert, on the subject of pensions, said: "As far as pensions are concerned there is not a man on the pension rolls to-day who was not placed there honestly and 'just as the pension laws required him to be. If you find a man drawing a pension illegally the government considers it your duty to report arxious for the enforcement of the laws now as it was in 1861-65. Nothing has occurred since then to change its views. We object to anyone assailing the entire pension roll without citing a single case. It generally occurs that those who assail the pension rolls were not in the army on either side. The membership of the G. A. R. is always loyal."

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, published this morning, says:

this morning, says:

There is a rift in the clouds. Faint and yet definite signs of improvement are all the better because they come not from possibly delusive hopes or from monetary foreign aid but from the good sense and wonderful recuperative power of the people themselves. Business is trying to go ahead without waiting for Washington. Imported gold 29,000,000 or more during the week does not go to the right spot. but the people are creating home-made curduring the week does not go to the right spot-but the people are creating home-made cur-rency for themselves by using certified checks-in paying hands, selling local accounts and purchasing grain and cetton. The bank circu-lation has increased $2,000,000, but the decrease on deposits of national banks alone from May 4 to July 12 was $193,169,588, and during the pastmonth withdrawals have also been heavy.

Little money comes back as yet from timid holders and the paralyzing effect on exchange s nearly as complete as ever, but that very act pushes each section and city into relying more on itself and not on the government. Many concerns are failing and closing, but resumptions are becoming somewhat frequent-and in the very shrinkage of production men see that demand must soon overtake supply.

Pig iron does not rally, but sells at $14 here and $13 at Pittsburgh for No. 1, though the weekly output has been reduced 45 per cent. since May, but large iron and steel works are beginning to resume operations. Though 5 have failed and 24 stopped during the week, 14 have resumed.

Only a third of the Connellsville coke ovens are at work, but coke at $1.25 gives a better chance to iron manufacture.

Sales of wool in seven weeks hame been only 1.750,000 pounds, against 5.000,000 pounds last year, and it is stated that 90,000 looms and 430,000 spindles in New England are now idle, which seans more than a quarter of the cetton spin dles of the country; but twenty night mills and five other cotton and woolen mills have resumed, while twenty-eight have stopped and ne failed during the week. Shipments of boots and shoes from Boston since the end of June have been 162,848 cases, against 572,345 last year, a decrease of 17½ per cent.: but a little more demand for goods is now seen, and some factories near Boston a Philadelphia have resumed. With the shrink-age in the great industries it is only surprising that railroad earnings do not decline more, the decrease on roads reporting in August thus far being 18 per cent. The decrease of 24 per cent. in clearings outside of New York last week and 20 this week is natural. aggregate stocks and bonds of the three roads mount to $650,000,000. Prices of securities have increased comparatively little, the average for railroad stocks being $43.12, against $45 last week, and trading has been dull. SENATE CHAMBER. WASHINGTON, Aug. M.

L. J. RITCHIE, ESQ.—Dear Sir: Yours of the 13th has been read and read with pleasure. I believe that congress is addressing itself to provide a cure of our present financial difficulties, but this cannot be hastened in a body composed of 450 senators and members. In the meantime events are reliev-ing slowly but surely. The incoming of gold, the large increase of our paper money, and confidence in our ability to maintain the bi-metallic standard of silver and gold at a parity with each other are helping to relieve our financial situation. I do not intend to be in a hurry in expressing my opinion of the best thing for relief, for I think it is better to move
